ANDREW M. JONES,)

Defendant.)

ORDER CONTINUING TRIAL

On April 20, 2011, the Grand Jury returned a three-count indictment against defendant Andrew M. Jones. Count One of the indictment charges that between May 21, 2008, and June 12, 2008, defendant Jones attempted to receive child pornography over the internet. Count Two charges that on June 20, 2008, defendant Jones received child pornography over the internet. Count Three charges that on August 11, 2009, defendant Jones possessed child pornography.

On February 17, 2012, defendant Jones filed a Motion for Continuance with Suggestions. The motion requests a continuance to the joint criminal jury trial docket commencing March 19, 2012. The suggestions in support of the motion state that a change of plea hearing could not be set before the conclusion of the February trial docket. A change of plea hearing has been scheduled for February 27, 2012. Counsel for the government does not oppose the requested continuance.

The Speedy Trial Act of 1974, as amended, mandates the commencement of the trial of a defendant within seventy days from the defendant's first appearance before a judicial officer of the court in which the charge is pending. In computing the seventy-day time period, the periods of delay set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h) are to be excluded. Any period of delay resulting from a continuance granted at the request of a defendant is excludable if the Court finds the ends of justice served by the taking of such action outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, provided the Court sets forth the reason for such finding. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).

Given the parties' tentative resolution of this case by plea, the Court finds the ends of justice served by granting a continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

Based on the foregoing, it is ORDERED that defendant Jones' Motion for Continuance (doc #24) is granted. This case is removed from the joint criminal jury trial docket which commences February 13, 2012. It is further ORDERED that this case is set for trial on the joint criminal jury trial docket which commences March 19, 2012. It is further ORDERED that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. section 3161(h), the time between the date of this Order and March 30, 2012, the last day of the March 19, 2012 Joint Criminal Jury Trial Docket, shall be excluded in computing the time within which this trial must commence.
